

The Social and Political Thought of Mary Wollstonecraft

Thursday, 30th May 2013

Room B36, Main Building

Birkbeck College

Malet St, London, WC1E 7HX

09:00 Welcome

09:10 Sandrine Berges (Bilkent University) Wet-Nursing and Political Participation: the Republican Approaches to Motherhood of Mary Wollstonecraft and Sophie de Grouchy

10:00 Martina Reuter (Jyväskylä University) Wollstonecraft's Criticism of Rousseau

10:50 Break

11:20 Alan Coffee (King's College London) Wollstonecraft: Independence, Diversity and the Virtuous Republic

12:10 Lena Halldenius (Lund University) Mary Wollstonecraft and Representation: Constitutional, Political, Moral

13:00 Lunch

14:30 Susan James (Birkbeck University of London) Wollstonecraft on Rights

15:30 Break

15:50 Keynote Address
Quentin Skinner (Queen Mary, University of London) Wollstonecraft and Republicanism

Barbara Taylor (Queen Mary, University of London) Wollstonecraft and Modern Philosophy

16:50 Closing Remarks

Sponsored by

The Understanding Agency Research Programme (Uppsala and Lund Universities), funded by the Bank of Sweden Tercentenary Fund

The Mind Association

Birkbeck Institute for the Humanities

European Society for Early Modern Philosophy